

New gTKP Website Launch

gTKP is proud to announce the launch of the new gTKP website.

The new gTKP website features a user-friendly design with a centralised knowledge database containing hundreds of pieces of knowledge. You can locate papers, publications, guidelines, presentations, photographs and videos related to your sector of interest through multi-search criteria.

Our comprehensive event list contains all road related events. There are many more features which we invite you to explore.

Visit the new gTKP website now

Registration is free of charge and very easy.

Comments are always welcomed and we will endeavour to refine the website for your enjoyment.

Visit the new
gTKP Website Now

Register Now!

Features of the New gTKP Website

The centralised knowledge database allows you to narrow your search by keywords, themes, author, organisation, knowledge type, related region or country. Visit the Knowledge Centre Now

The comprehensive event list contains all road related events, and allows you to view events by date, event type, host organisation, region and country. Visit the Event List Now gTKP's eight core themes' information have been restructured for ease of navigation and quick reference. All information are interlinked with the knowledge centre. Visit the gTKP themes

Join our discussions (powered by Yahoo! Groups) hosted by our eight theme champions to express your view on the latest road related issues. View the discussion group list

Visit the new
gTKP Website Now

Register Now!

Special News

We are delighted to introduce and extend a warm welcome to our newly appointed Governance Theme Champion, Mark Thriscutt.

Mark Thriscutt has been an independent consultant for almost 20 years, with previous experience in transport planning, traffic management and road maintenance and management. He specialises in the "soft" issues associated with transport management, including institutional reform, funding, change management, legislation, improving management processes, and better reporting, communications and accountability (e.g through the use of performance agreements).

He has worked in many countries throughout Africa, South and East Asia, EECCA, Australia and Caribbean. He has worked with governments and most of the main international Donors, either directly or with international companies. He has a degree in Civil Engineering and an MBA. Currently based in the UK, he lived in Australia for 11 years until 2007.

We are greatly looking forward to working with him. Should you have any enquiry about the Governance theme, please contact Mark at mark.thriscutt@gtkp.com.

Free advice from technical experts gTKP offers free expertise to transport practitioners and other interested people. You can contact us with a query by emailing info@gtkp.com or by finding the most relevant theme champions and contacting them directly. Email addresses of all our theme champions are in this newsletter under each theme.

Let us know what you think

As always we welcome your comments, questions and suggestions. You can contact us on info@gtkp.com or by joining our discussion groups on www.gtkp.com.